Custom Countertop and Interior Design Business

Type of Business:

This highly profitable custom countertop and interior design business for sale in Northwest Iowa has been designing, fabricating, and installing top quality countertops, cabinetry and flooring for residential and commercial projects for over three decades. The business transforms kitchens, bathrooms, and other areas of a home or business with stunning designs, innovative layouts, and stylish materials. The business meets unique design requirements with the most popular materials on the market while ensuring the process goes smoothly from initial design through final installation.

Growth Opportunity:

The business is well postured for growth by extending their footprint beyond their current 60 mile radius with a second location. The business can also integrate new technology by implementing modern 3D design software, automated CNC machinery, or digital customer relationship management tools. A new Owner can also increase sales through additional product offerings and expanding into lucrative design-build services.

Reason for Selling:

The Owners would like to retire
